BIOGRAPHY

Arif Yusof is a multidisciplinary practitioner operating at the intersection of law, creative technology, and higher education. With over 17 years of active legal practice as an Advocate and Solicitor of the High Court of Malaya and partner at Yusof Zain & Co., he specializes in civil litigation, commercial agreements, conveyancing, and intellectual property. Beyond his legal practice, he maintains an active career as a live performer, recording musician, and wind instrumentalist, having served as the horn section lead for TV9's Rockestra and regularly performing with The Bandalorians.

As an Adjunct Lecturer teaching law and music courses at institutions including UCSI University, Arif integrates real world industry experience with forward looking insights into generative AI, intellectual property, and digital transformation in creative ecosystems. He holds an LL.B (Hons) from the University of Buckingham, a Master of Arts in Music from Middlesex University, and a Masters in Islamic Finance Practice from INCEIF University. He is currently researching aspects of the governance of the music industry.
